Morgan Horse Wins In Rushville Show

Rambling Rose, Tennessee walking horse, owned by Fred E. Wharton of Jacksonville, won second place at the Schuyler county fair horse show Tuesday night. There were ten horses in the special class. Horse enthusiasts believe this was the largest Tennessee walking class ever shown in Illinois.

Everett Mason of rural route 3. A second entry from the Wharton stables, Merry Gloria, failed to place. She dislikes soft footing and the Rushville track was rather muddy. She was ridden by Mr. Wharton.

The horse shows held each evening in connection with the annual Western Illinois fair have attracted very heavy patronage. Many of the horses are expected to enter the matinee and evening shows to be held at the Morgan county fairgrounds during the Labor Day holidays.

Ways to Save

If you were a South American Indian from the upper Sipi River in western Colombia, your "savings" would consist of sun-dried coca leaves, which you would be most careful to dry. Dried coca leaves have a market, or "savings" value because when they are chewed they make you almost tireless at work — constantly adding to your strength.

Savings at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Assn. are somewhat like coca leaves. They constantly add to themselves by earning a profit. And too, they "stand by you" in time of need.

Morgan's Rural Roads Hit By Higher Costs And Decreased Income

Financial problems connected with the improvement and maintenance of rural roads in Morgan and adjoining counties were increased vastly by the action of the recent session of the Illinois General Assembly. County Superintendent of Highways Melvin J. Benscoter said Wednesday.

New York Stock Market

New York, July 6.—(AP)—Demand for stocks increased a bit today and the market moved ahead for the fifth day running. Gains ranged from fractions to more than a point and in a few cases more. Trading expanded on the way up although it still leaned to the slim side. Turnover was at the rate of more than 1,000,000 shares for the full session. The total was somewhat misleading as a gauge of overall activity, however. Corporate bonds tended upward.

Costs Soar; Revenues Down
The superintendent said the costs of maintaining roads "have more than doubled in the last few years. New machinery costs twice as much, so does road oil, gravel and labor."

The Butler bill reduced the county tax rate for road purposes. The property tax raised $72,000 in 1930; only $46,000 last year.

The county's share of motor fuel tax revenues has been used for the construction, improvement and maintenance of certain roads. At the present time 85 miles of road in Morgan county are being maintained by fuel tax receipts.

"It will be impossible to maintain our roads, much less improve them with the money that is now available," the superintendent declared. "Each of the 13 rural counties is already paying a special assessment for road purposes. It seems that the people in the rural areas are doing their share in the costs of maintaining roads."

Cubs Defeat Cards In Last Of Ninth 4-3

Cincinnati Blasts Cubs In Record 3 To 4 Contest

Cincinnati, July 6.—(P)—The usually mild-mannered Cincinnati Reds, paced by Walker Cooper's trio of three-run homers, did better than the near 100 degree weather today as they annihilated the Chicago Cubs, 23-4, for the biggest score of the major league season.

Cooper, who drove in 10 runs in all, had six hits in seven trips, showing the way in the Reds 26-hit attack on six Chicago pitchers. His three homers equaled the feat, earlier this season, of the Philadelphia Phillies' Andy Seminick and the Detroit Tigers' Pat Mullins.

Every Redie scored at least one run during the two-hour and 45 minute slugfest and all but Ken Raffensberger, the winning pitcher, hit safely.

Raffy spaced 11 Chicago blows, including former Redie Hank Sauer's 14th homer, in posting his ninth victory as against six defeats.

The Reds gave early indication that they had a lot of runs to get out of their system as they scored two in the opening round on four hits. Starter Walt Dubiel was hit by a batted ball during that inning and had to retire Warren Hacker, the eventual loser, took over and worked five innings.

Four Cincinnati runs crossed the plate in the second on three hits and two errors.

Sauer connected for his homer, good for two runs, in the third when the Cubs bobbed up with three runs. But the Reds came back with a six-run outburst in their half, highlighted by Cooper's first homer.

The Cubs got their last run in the fifth and then, in the sixth, big Cooper's bat boomed again for another three-run, round-tripper as the Reds again scored six runs. Ted Kluszewski also homered in that frame with Grady Hatton on base.

Coopers next trip to the plate was in the seventh. Two men were on base and the Redie catcher rounded out his day with a blast over the left field wall.

Up for his seventh appearance at the plate in the eighth inning and with opportunity of setting an all-time record of seven hits in a game, Cooper grounded into a force-out, Shortstop Phil Ramazzotti to Second Baseman Gene Mazuch.

Harry Walker and Peanuts Lowrey, late of the Cubs, combined for five hits and seven runs against their former major league pitcher.

Red Sox Defeat Senators 5 To 0 In 5 Inning Fray

Washington, July 6.—(P)—Ellis Kinder posted his eighth victory tonight as the Boston Red Sox defeated Washington, 5-0, in a game called in the sixth inning due to rain.

Kinder held the Senators—beaten 11 of their last 14 games—to four hits as the Red Sox mauled Guy Haynes and Sid Hudson for eight safeties. Haynes, who left after three innings with a 2-0 deficit and a pulled muscle in his side, was the loser.

Birdie Tebbetts had singled and moved to second on a passed ball with one out in the sixth when a downpour washed out the remaining innings.

Gardella's Suit To Get Hearing In November

New York, July 6.—(P)—The court test of baseball's league structure is now scheduled for November.

Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard announced yesterday he was giving Johnny Gardella's $300,000 damage suit against the game's officials a priority fast hearing.

Gardella, the one-time New York giant outfielder who was banished from organized baseball in 1946 for jumping to the Mexican league, is challenging the sport's reserve clause.

He contends the clause which binds a player to a club for life or until the club disposes of him, violates the anti-trust laws.

A. B. Chandler, commissioner of baseball, recently lifted the suspensions of the Mexican League jumpers. Gardella chose not to come back. He is playing semi-pro ball in Canada.

Two former St. Louis Cardinals pitchers, Max Lanier and Fred Martin, who have similar $250,000 damage suits pending, have returned to their old jobs.

$1,500,000 Blaze Hits Maine Piers

Bangor, Me., July 7.—(P)—A $1,500,000 blaze laid waste a quarter mile of Bangor's waterfront early today.

Fireboat river wharves carrying five fuel depots, a bus garage, a hardware warehouse and a plumbing supply house were destroyed. Explosions of drums containing gasoline and oil heightened the fire's fury.

The Bangor Daily News reported the blaze under control shortly before 1 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time). It had been raging more than three hours.

Dodgers, Cardinals Dominate All-Star Pitching Staff

New York, July 7.—(P)—The Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals, presently in a dog fight for the pennant, dominate the National league all-star team—even to the extent of the pitching staff.

Billy Southworth of the Boston Braves, who will manage the Nationals, picked eight hurlers. Three of them were Dodgers, and two of them Cardinals.

In the Dodgers and Cardinals each landed seven players on the 26-man squad, which included first baseman Eddie Waitkus of the Phillies, as an honorary member. Waitkus is recovering from a gunshot wound inflicted by a crazed girl admirer.

Another surprise nominee to the squad which meets the American league all-stars in the 16th annual game at Brooklyn's Ebbets field next Tuesday is Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati's righthander. Blackie, convalescing from a kidney operation, has only one victory this year.

As expected, Southworth chose Brooklyn's ace, Preacher Roe (8-2) and Ralph Branca (10-2) but his choice of Rookie Don Newcombe (6-2) was another eyebrow lifter.

The two Cardinal nominees were left-handed Howie Pollet (10-5) and George Mauer (6-3).

Rounding out the big pitching eight are Warren Spahn (9-7) and Vern Riffe (10-4) of the Boston Braves, and Blackwell (1-0).

Only two were members of the 1948 National league team which was defeated at St. Louis, 5 to 2. They were Branca and Blackwell.

Ignored were two Philadelphia stalwarts with fine records this year, Ken Heintzmann (10-5) and Robin Roberts (9-8). Ken Raffensberger (8-6) of Cincinnati, whose four shut outs leads the major leagues in that respect, also was passed up.

The rest of the team followed the dictates of the 4,637,743 fans who participated in the nation-wide poll. Southworth, bound only to use the starting players named in the poll, followed the vote all down the line. Pitchers were not chosen in the voting.

The starters, as chosen by the poll, will be Johnny Mize of the New York Giants, first base; Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn, second base; Rookie Eddie Kaskaz, St. Louis, third base; Pee Wee Reese, Brooklyn, shortstop; Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh, leading both majors in home runs, with 21; Stan Musial, St. Louis, and Willard Marshall, New York, outfielders; and Andy Seminick, Philadelphia, catcher.

Mize is the "veteran," having played with the Nationals in eight previous games.

The Giants got four players on the squad, the champion Braves, the Reds and Phillies, two apiece, and the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh, one each.

Blackwell tops the pitchers in the number of inter-league classics. This will be his fourth all-star game. Pollet, Munger and Branca now are named for their third, and it is the second for Spahn. For Roe, Bickford and Newcombe, it will be their first shot against the Americans.

After Mize, the next veteran is Catcher Walker Cooper, recently traded by the Giants to the Reds. Cooper was third choice among the receivers and is on the squad for the seventh time. Musial, Enos Slaughter and Marty Marion of the Cardinals will be making their sixth appearance, and it will be No. 5 for Reese.

Andy Parko, only member of the Cubs on the squad, and Al Schoendienst of the Cardinals are on the squad for the third time. Players making the team for the second time are Kiner, Marshall, Bob Thomson and Sid Gordon of the Giants, and Waitkus, who has been invited to sit on the bench in civilian clothes.

In addition to the three "freshman" pitchers, there will be five others on the squad for the first time. They are Seminick, Robinson and Kaskaz, plus Catcher Roy Campanella and First Sacker Gil Hodges, both of Brooklyn.

Robinson, Campanella and Newcombe all are negroes and will be the first of their race to participate in the all-star game along with Larry Doby, Cleveland outfielder, who is on the American league team.

Unless they are injured, the eight players voted as "starters" must remain in the game at least three innings.

Southworth named Managers Burt Shotton of Brooklyn, and Bucky Walters of Cincinnati, as his coaches.

The Boston pilot directed the 1943 and 1944 National league games when he was manager of St. Louis. The Americans beat his team in 1943, 5 to 3. The next year, Southworth's club beat the Americans, 7-1, and that's the last time the Nationals have won the all-star game.

In all, The Americans have won 11, the Nationals four.

By Bob Morris

If anyone ever went out on a limb and then invited several hundred guys to start chewing on it, Fred Saigh, diminutive prey of the St. Louis Cardinals did just that at the conclusion of his speech to the East Side Boys club, Trinity Mens club and Lions club at the Dunlap hotel last night.

In an area that wavers between being red-hot Dodger, Cub or Cardinal fan, he asked if there were any questions?

Local fans promptly put him under the arcs and fastened the third degree on the Redbird owner. Of course the first question was one that he'd like to know the answer to himself about this time so he could begin making plans for the world series. "Will the Cardinals win the pennant?" Mr. Saigh stepped this one by saying, "We're in second place now—by the way would someone step out and see how the Bird-Bug game is going?"

We asked about the vicious rumor that had circulated in this area that whispered "Saigh has Musial on the block." "Do you think I want to get tossed out of St. Louis?" was the owner's reply.

Saigh—who is approximately 5 ft. 3 in. in stature—drew himself up to his full height as he proclaimed "we have one of the greatest sports systems in the United States today." An effervescent figure, both in appearance and speech, the Cardinal owner stressed the fact that mercenary public relations had nothing to do with his coming to Jacksonville. "Rather," he said, "my reason for coming here tonight, is my great love for boys." This he proved when he turned his speech into a near riot by tossing several dollars worth of horseshoes to the youngsters.

Touching briefly on the touchy subject of televised ball games, Mr. Saigh indicated that he is experimenting, and experimenting only in allowing 37 Cardinal games to be tele-cast from Sportsmans park this season.

The ex-Springfield man threw the Cardinal doors wide open to every aspiring young ball player present when he named Musial, Slaughter and Marion—Cardinal stars—who came up from the power ranks. In fact, he was so emphatic in stating that poor boys could make the grade, that we began to wonder if the "silver-spooned" kids had a chance.

When we doubted the condition of the Cardinal chain-rang since Rickey left the southland, Mr. Saigh whipped out his pen, grabbed a chunk of copy paper and started quoting figures. We have 22 minor league teams, he wrote. Eighteen of those teams are in the first division; 7 are in first place and 6 of the clubs are in second, not more than 3 games out of first place. How are you gonna argue with a guy like that?

He did attribute the Cardinal farm system's success to Rickey's ideas and Sam Breadon's finances. However, he further stressed that the Cardinal-owned minor teams are going to be held in the same high regard under his direction as they have in the past.

Just a slight—The Trinity Mens club in general and Bob Bond and Claude Vasey in particular are doing wonderful work in their sponsorship of the East Side Boys club. One comment we overheard during the meeting: "If every church in town would sponsor such an organization, 500 boys would have something to do and their energy would be directed into more constructive channels."

Reports have it that Charley Due and Stan Spotts have inked contracts with the Washington Senators through Scout Jack Rossier of Springfield. We haven't talked with either young man for confirmation on the story, but our suspicions push us into agreement with the rumors. Due is a catcher and Spotts is a shortstop. They are subject to call at any time to report to a Nat farm club.

White Sox Take 9 To 6 Victory Over Cleveland

Chicago, July 6.—(P)—Bud Souchock's base-clearing eighth inning double gave the Chicago White Sox a 9-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians before 24,444 persons tonight. The victory, Chicago's fifth in as many games against the Indians here this season, proved Satchel Paige's fifth 1949 loss.

Cleveland, using 18 players, including six pitchers, pulled into a 6-6 tie with a four-run spurt in the top half of the eighth.

Allen Gettel, replacing starter Bob Kuzava, halted the romp and went on to bag his second victory as Chicago scored three times in its half. Luke Appling opened the attack on Paige with his fourth single. Michaels doubled off the left field bricks and Charlie Kress was purposefully passed, filling the bases.

Souchock followed with a low liner to right near the foul line. Gordon and Rightfielder Bob Kennedy, both trying for the catch, collided and the ball dropped for a game-winning double.

Gambling Going On In Golf And USGA Against It

New York, July 6.—(P)—The U. S. Golf Association warned today that auction pools at championship tournaments could open the way for professional gambling to take over the sport.

The USGA hinted it might crack down on amateur players who beat heavily on their skill and sent out a full-page statement setting forth its position.

It didn't cite cases. It didn't threaten punishment. It just took cognizance that gambling in golf is going on—and it's against it.

The executive committee, the USGA said, has adopted a resolution stating: "This association does not approve organized gambling in connection with the playing of the game."

July Wheat Rises Above $2 In Broad Buying Movement

Chicago, July 6.—(P)—With July wheat rolling above $2.00 in a broad buying movement, the bread cereal gave a show of first class power on the Board of Trade today.

Gains ranged to more than 5 cents at times. July wheat made a new high since early February, before the sharp price break during that month. Other cereals also showed strength, but did not match the wheat gains.

Receipts were: wheat 313 cars, corn 29, oats 10, rye 1, barley 9, soybeans 2.

Wheat closed 41-5/8 higher, July $2.01-1/2, corn was 1-1/2 higher, July $1.37-1/2, oats were 1-1/4 higher, July 62-1/4, rye was 3 to 4 cents higher, July $1.42, soybeans were 12-1/2 higher, July $2.52-1/2, and land was 5 to 8 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $10.55.

Nebraskan Urges Extra Session Of Congress Nov. 1

Washington, July 6.—(P)—A special session of Congress beginning Nov. 1 was proposed today by Rep. Miller (R-Nebr.), to eliminate "unnecessary government activities" and balance expenditures with income.

The Nebraskan introduced a resolution proposing the special session to act on recommendations of the Hoover commission for government reorganization.

The measure also would direct Congress to take such action "as may be necessary to eliminate unnecessary government activities, and to bring the expenditures of the federal government into balance with its income."

"If this resolution is adopted," Miller said in a speech prepared for the House, "it will be the first time the Congress has met with one purpose in mind—that of eliminating unnecessary government activities."

Miller told a reporter he had talked with several Republican House leaders and that they approved his idea of a special session.

Merchants Edge V.F.W. In Donkey Ball Game; Myers Bros. Snag Win

Bud Suttles underhanded the local Myers Bros. entry in the CIIS softball conference to a 5-3 win over the Havana Glass Bar nine on the Southside sod last night.

The game proved only an anticlimax to the donkey softball game which preceded it. The Merchants proved the better bronc busters as they tamped the V.F.W. ball club 7-2 astride the braying steeds.

Suttles showing a good assortment of stuff on the ball—was ahead of the visiting batmen in every inning except one. The Havana outfit pounded him for three hits in the fifth inning when they scored all of their markers.

The Myers crew chalked up a pair of tallies in the second inning off Havana hurler Bill Boyer. They added single runs in the third, sixth and eighth innings.

The Jacksonville team will travel to Havana Friday night for a return engagement. All CIIS league games are nine innings.

Braves Overcome Front-Running Brooklyn 7 To 5

Boston, July 6.—(P)—Tommy Holmes' third homer in his last three games clinched Vernon Bickford's 11th win for the Boston Braves, a 7-5 decision over the top place Brooklyn Dodgers tonight before a packed 34,002 crowd. Elbie Fletcher homered in the Braves' men's first two runs in the first inning.

Bickford, however, weakened in the ninth and put the first two batters aboard but Nelson Potter choked off the Dodgers' last ditch rally after their fifth scorer crossed the plate.

The Braves' blasted starter, Ralph Branca, who also was seeking his 11th triumph, out of action in the second inning. Ervin Falco relieved him and Don Newcombe finished up.

Catcher Roy Campanella hit his 11th homer for Brooklyn in the second.

Miss Steinhagen has been committed to a psychiatric hospital.

Brownies Outlast Tigers 6 To 5 In 13 Inning Tilt

St. Louis, July 6.—(P)—Gerry Priddy singled Pitcher Tom Ferrick home with the winning run to give the St. Louis Browns a 13th inning 6 to 5 triumph over the Detroit Tigers tonight. Detroit broke the tie in the 12th with a walk and two singles for one run but with two out in the last of that frame Jack Graham came up with his second homer of the game to send it along one more inning.

Ferrick opened the 13th against Reliever Art Houtteman with a single into right. Bob Dillinger followed with another base hit, sending Ferrick to third. Dillinger took second on the throw in.

Houtteman then walked Paul Lehner purposely to lead the bases as Priddy came up.

The Tigers, had the contest as good as won after Aaron Robinson singled to score Johnny Groth with the leading tally in the 12th. But Graham came up with the first hit the Brownies had off Virgil Trucks since the seventh inning. After Sherman Lollar singled, Trucks gave way to Houtteman. Graham's other four-bagger came in the fourth, also with the sacks empty.

Tom Ferrick, who relieved Karl Drews in the 11th inning, got the victory credit.

Detroit.....100 020 100 001 0—5 14 0 St. Louis.....020 100 100 001 1—6 12 0 (13 Innings.)

Trucks, Houtteman (12) and Robinson; Drews, Ferrick (11) and Lollar. HRHS: Det—Kell; StL—Graham 2 WP—Ferrick; LP—Houtteman.

CLIPPED ANGEL

By Clive Grierson Cornish

THE STORY: Mike McNeil, a mining engineer, is investigating the falling off of production at the Dark Angel mine. The mine is owned by Cory Farrell from her father. Mike's investigations are secretly being watched by the mine owner. Mike is unable to find out who is watching him or how it is being done. He thinks the ore is being sold through a dummy mine. When he discovers that he has found evidence that the nearby Argus Mine is the dummy. These Mike discovers a rail line in an unused drift of the Dark Angel that shows signs of being used regularly.

I FLASHED my light down the cross-cut and explored it. It was blocked about 30 feet ahead, where the lagging had collapsed from the weight of crumbled rock above it.

It looked as if it had been that way for years, and I was trying to figure out how they got by it, when I heard the rumble of a train of cars coming down the main tunnel.

My first impulse was to stay put and let it go by. Suddenly I realized that at this time of night there wasn't supposed to be anyone working in the mine.

I lit out of that cross-cut and into the main tunnel before I'd finished thinking about it. I'd spotted a manway to the next level about 20 feet back and I was up and into it three seconds before the locomotive's headlight threw shadows on the tunnel wall.

The loco stopped and I could hear a swishing, as if somebody were scattering gravel. That would be the driver sweeping the tongue of the switch clear.

Somebody said, "Okay, let her go," and the rumble of cars started again. It died away gradually inside the cross-cut.

What I did next reflects no credit on me—I was unarmed, and I had the information I wanted—but I went romping after the train of ore cars like a hound dog after a cougar.

Where the pile of rubble had been was now a clear passage—a series of counterweights raised the whole works like a drawbridge—and after I had passed several old drifts I noticed the tunnel looked new, strong enough to stand without timbering. I hadn't gone more than a hundred yards when I heard the cars coming towards me again.

I sprinted back to one of the old drifts, ducked around a corner and heard them rumble by. I waited until I was sure the coast was clear then I set out to follow the tunnel to its mouth.

It ended where the tracks curved up against a wooden wall, of which the upper half was hinged like a Dutch door. It gave when I pushed against it and swung open, revealing the inside of a low, flat-roofed shed.

A truck was backed up close to where I stood, a big, orange-colored six-wheeler, and on the cab door was painted: STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. MAINTENANCE DIV. Damp tire marks showed where a second truck had recently stood, and bits of spilled ore told the story.

I was curious to know where I was. I closed the doors behind me, wriggled through a high window and played my flashlight on the outside of the building. It stood at the turn of a driveway in one of the innumerable gullies that helped to give Umbrella Mountain its name.

The sloping ground behind it had been excavated and the building looked exactly what it was—a half-underground garage. And there was no reason why it shouldn't. A clipped enamel sign on the front proclaimed "Property of State Highway Department—Penalty for Trespassing—$100." I made sure I'd left no traces, then I started walking along the road towards the townsite, around a rib of the mountain and about half a mile away.

I WAS nearly out on my feet when I got back. I slept until noon and by the time I saw Cory it was two in the afternoon. She had shed her weatherstained khaki and was every inch an heiress in tailored tweeds.

"Whenever you're ready, Mike, we'll start. I've got to go into town and see Doug about that offer for the mine."

"What's the name of the lawyer who made the offer?" I asked "Hennessy—I think."

It fitted like the missing piece in a puzzle. "Hennessy," I said, "is the name of the guy who fronts for Argus Mines. And Argus Mines, Incorporated is flourishing mightily on high-grade ore stolen from the Dark Angel."

She looked at me blankly. "Is this another theory, Mike?" "Put on your hat—if you wear a hat with that rig—and come along. I'll show you something interesting."

"Where?" "In the mine."

"What's the matter? Don't you believe me?" "I believe you, Mike, but you see, I've got claustrophobia."

"I nearly fell off my chair. What?" "You don't have to be rude about it!"

"I couldn't believe it. The idea of trying to manage a mine when you couldn't go underground to check up... 'Why, it's crazy!' I exclaimed.

Annual Home Bureau Citizenship Sessions Open Wednesday

The 12th annual Citizenship and Home Bureau Organization Conference opened Wednesday morning as delegates from 99 counties in Illinois began registering at MacMurray college, where the conference will be in progress through Saturday.

Approximately 200 women from all parts of the state are here for the conference, which is held annually to stimulate interest in the responsibilities of citizenship. It is sponsored by the Illinois Home Bureau Federation and the Home Economics Extension Service of the University of Illinois.

The opening session Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock was presided over by Mrs. Adam McWilliams.

Group singing was enjoyed by the direction of Mrs. R. E. Milligan, music chairman of the I.H.S.P.,
with Mrs. R. A. Shively of Platt county as accompanist.

Explains Objectives
The objectives of the conference were explained by Mrs. Mary Robinson, federation president. Mrs.

Dale Huffman, chairman of the organization committee, presented her report and outlined future plans.

Mrs. Dale Huffman, Mason county and chairman of the Organization committee for THRE presented the membership report. She said there are 94 organizations in 99 counties. She further stated that in the last year there has been a gain in membership.

Professor M. R. Sumption, College of Education, University of Illinois, was unable to attend. In his place, Jack Landes of the Bureau of Education for the Deaf attended.

Miss Martha Lewis is worthy advisor of the Jacksonville assembly. The trip was made in cars. Those attending were: Miss Jackie Katz, Miss Katz also was appointed grand confidential observer. Miss Patty Fulton served as grand confidential observer at this session, attended by advisor.

national Research and Service, College of Education, University of Illinois, spoke on the subject, "Our School Situation in Illinois."

Mr. Landes stated that: since the 1945 county survey law the school districts in the State of Illinois, in the past, have been divided into two groups, the rural districts, he continued, were set up on too small a scale.

"We provide education for 15 percent of our students by giving them college prep work. What about the 85 percent that do not go to college?"

He concluded by saying that the goal of education should be guided by the standard of what is best for the individual child.

A discussion period followed Mr. Landes' address, in charge of the following district speakers: Mrs. Adam McWilliam, Toulon, northwest; Mrs. Harold Bower, Oswego, northeast; Mrs. Emmett Dunham, Berwick, west central; Mrs. A. W. Dickey, Clinton, east central; Mrs. J. J. Warnecke, Breese, southwest; and Mrs. Edwin F. Schrader, Bridgeport, southeast.

Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, she was alone and telephoning in the apartment at 426 Brlar place, on the north side, when the doorman rang. When she opened the door, she observed, "don't scream or we'll kill you."

They noticed the phone screen off the hook and told her to finish her conversation without sounding any alarm.

Her abrupt ending of the talk aroused the suspicion of the woman at the other end of the line. Mrs. Fagnholz of the Belmont hotel. Mrs. Fagnholz telephoned a neighbor of Mr. Sandack and asked her to investigate. When the neighbor reached the Sandack apartment, the men had fled.
